• ISM and the Bond Business School have developed a cooperation, which allows ISM graduates to apply for a PhD program.

• A preselection for the program is made by ISM, final admission will depend on BBS. The supervision will be done jointly by the BBS (1st supervisor) and ISM (2nd supervisor).

• Delivery of the Programs shall take place according to BBS’ Policy and Code of Practice for Postgraduate Research Programs.

• Administrative support for ISM candidates will be provided by ISM.
BOND BUSINESS SCHOOL

- Bond is Australia’s first private non-profit university. Located on the Gold Coast, Bond has recently been awarded a five-star rating for student experience for the thirteenth year in a row by the 2019 Good Universities Guide Australia. Bond has 4,000 enrolled students and 200 Higher Degree by Research students.

- The Bond Business School (BBS) is AACSB and EQUIS accredited.
- The Bond Business School (BBS) is one of only four universities in Australia who are members of GMAC, which signals the significant contribution BBS makes to graduate management education.

BIG DATA
The Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) must be significant original research. During the course of the degree the candidate will further develop their specialist knowledge and have deep methodological capacity. Depending on the field of specialisation, the degree culminates in the submission of a substantial research thesis. A Doctor of Philosophy is an internationally recognised research degree and is a pathway to an academic or research career.

The PhD program offer by the Bond Business School develops independent research skills and the ability to relate a specific research topic to a broad framework of knowledge. The program places a major emphasis on independent inquiry, a thorough understanding of domain specific knowledge, competence in research methodologies and on the ability to communicate research results.

Duration: 4 years.
• Each student has to be present at the Bond Business School for at least their first semester of candidature.

• Each student is obliged to attend one module at the ISM (one week), which is taking place during February/March at the ISM Dortmund and is equivalent to 20 ECTS.

• Doctoral candidates may be required to successfully complete at least three research methodology subjects at BBS, including qualitative and quantitative analysis, in the first year of candidature.
ADMISSION CRITERIA

All applicants should fulfill the following criteria:

• Excellence in academic qualifications, e.g. minimum GPA: 2.0 (German grading system).

• An official undergraduate degree or the equivalent and an official Master’s degree, that is, a total of 300 ECTS, 60 of which at Master’s level at least.

• For whom English is not the first language, a minimum level of C1 has to be demonstrated, proof of English language proficiency: IELTS 7.0 or TOEFL 600 (pbt) / 90-95 (ibt) or above.

• A research proposal at an appropriate level for doctoral study which can be supervised by both BBS and ISM research staff.
