

Application for ISM Scholarships

Besides completing and signing this form, grant applicants should also submit the following documents:

- Current proof of credit for study or examinations/bachelor's degree (Master students only)
- Certified (authenticated) English or German translation of the school-leaving certificate qualifying you to study at a higher education institution
- Translation of your school grade into the German grading scale (translation formular on page 2)
- Current personal tax assessment, if any
- Parents' current tax assessment, if any
- External loan agreement, if any
- Résumé (max. two pages)

Note: This document is only meant for applicants ...

1. who apply for a scholarship for the first or advanced semester
2. who did not obtain their general university entry qualification (Hochschulzugangsberechtigung) from an institution of the German education system (international applicants)

The application must be submitted from December 15th - January 15th for spring term and from June 15th - July 15th for fall semester.

The application from international applicants must be submitted from November 15th - December 15th for spring term and from May 15th - June 15th for fall semester.

Applications that are handed in after the deadline will not be taken into consideration.

Your completely filled out application can be sent via E-Mail (one single PDF document, maximum file size 20 MB, no use of file sharing platforms) to scholarships@ism.de. Inquiries regarding the scholarship application should be addressed to the student advisor at the respective campus.

Bachelor

Full scholarship from 1st semester

High-performing beginners can receive a full scholarship including all tuition fees for the bachelor program (six semesters) as well as the tuition fee for the completing bachelor thesis. The scholarship does not contain financial support regarding accommodation, living costs, learning material, etc. Only the tuition fees for international partner universities that can be covered by the ISM's tuition fee are covered by the scholarship.

Partial scholarship from 1st semester

This kind of scholarship covers a part of the complete tuition fees at ISM. It does not contain financial support regarding accommodation, living costs, learning material, etc.

Requirements

- Proof of financial need
- Outstanding scholastic performance with a grade point average of 1.5 or better in the high school diploma
- Essential extracurricular activity e.g. student associations, student council or assistant as well as outside the school in charity organizations

Master

Full scholarship from 1st semester

High-performing beginners can receive a full scholarship including all tuition fees for the master's program (three semesters) as well as the tuition fee for completing the master thesis. The scholarship does not contain financial support regarding accommodation, living costs, learning material, etc. Only the tuition fees for international partner universities that can be covered by the ISM's tuition fee are covered by the scholarship.

Partial scholarship from 1st semester

This kind of scholarship answers its purpose to cover a part of the complete tuition fees at ISM. It does not contain financial support regarding accommodation, living costs, learning material, etc.

Requirements

- Proof of financial need
- Outstanding academic performance with a grade point average of 1.7 or higher in the first academic degree (e.g. Bachelor's degree)
- Essential extracurricular activity e.g. student associations, student council or assistant as well as outside the school/university in charity organizations

Translation of Grade

To translate your school grade into the German grading scale please use the so-called Bavarian formula:

$$N = 1 + 3 \times \frac{P_{\max} - P}{P_{\max} - P_{\min}}$$

- Maximum grade ( $P_{\max}$ ) minus the grade you reached ( $P$ ), divided through maximum grade ( $P_{\max}$ ) minus lowest sufficient grade ( $P_{\min}$ )
- Then multiply the result by three, plus 1.
- Please indicate clearly the minimum and maximum grade in your country.

Additional information for applicants:

- An incomplete application or missing attachments notably missing proof of income as a current tax assessment note (only complete note, not a tax computation), will result in your grant application being excluded from the award process.
- The selection criteria for awarding grants include means testing, school and study achievement, as well as involvement in social, community and student activities. Should you have any documents other than the mandatory attachments – such as testimonials – which confirm that you satisfy these criteria, you are welcome to submit them for consideration as well.
